

Frank J. Keefer, a witness of lawful age, after having been duly sworn, deposes and says:

State your name, age and residence?

Frank J. Keefer, I am forty-four years of age and reside in Frederick, Maryland.

Do you know the parties to this cause?

I think I know all of them.

I hand you paper writing marked Exhibit No. 1, would you tell the Examiner what it is?

It is a certified copy of the will of William H. Hooper.

I hand you Exhibit No. 2 and would you tell the Court what that is?

It is a certified copy of the deed to the property that was left to Lavinia Rigdon for life and mentioned in these proceedings.

When did Mrs. Helen Lavinia Rigdon die?

It was in the spring of 1941.

What children did William H. Hooper leave at the time of his death?

① Charles R. Hooper whose wife's name is Katie A. Hooper, and they reside in Washington. I would also say that at this time he is the only living child of William H. Hooper. The second child was William O. Hooper, who is deceased, whose wife's name is Mary, also deceased, and left the following children:

② Nannie Eisenhauer, whose husband is Joseph Eisenhauer, and who reside in Frederick. William Hooper, whose wife's name is Mary Hooper, and who reside in Frederick. Carrie Krebbs, a daughter, deceased, whose husband was William Krebbs, who is also deceased, and left the following children: Ira Krebbs whose wife is Elsie Krebbs, and who reside in Baltimore, Maryland,

③ Another child of William H. Hooper was Lewis C. Hooper, a son, deceased, whose wife's name was Susan Hooper, also deceased, and left the following child: Margaret G. Keefer, whose husband's name is Frank J. Keefer, and who reside in Frederick.

④ Another child of William H. Hooper was Catherine M. Hershberger, a daughter, deceased, whose husband's name was John Hershberger, also